Documents hereto titled “Annual Report” are based on the Company’s Annual Securities Report (Japanese only) prepared following the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act for the purpose of providing accurate financial information and other information in a manner that is easy to understand. In the event of any discrepancy between these translated documents and the Japanese originals, the originals shall prevail. The Company assumes no responsibility for this translation or for direct, indirect or any other forms of damages arising from the translations.

[NOTE: Basis of Presenting Consolidated Financial Statements]

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of Nintendo Co., Ltd. (the “Company”) and its consolidated subsidiaries are compiled from the consolidated financial statements prepared by the Company as required by the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act of Japan and are prepared on the basis of accounting principles and practices generally accepted in Japan, which are different in certain respects as to application and disclosure requirements of the International Financial Reporting Standards. The financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries in Japan are prepared on the basis of the accounting and relevant legal requirements in Japan. The financial statements of consolidated subsidiaries outside of Japan are prepared on the basis of the accounting and relevant legal requirements of their countries of domicile and no adjustment has been made to their financial statements in consolidation to the extent that significant differences do not occur, as allowed under the generally accepted accounting principles and practices in Japan.

Each amount in the accompanying consolidated financial statements is rounded down to the nearest one million yen or one billion yen. Consequently, the totals shown in the accompanying consolidated financial statements do not necessarily agree with the sums of the individual amounts.

The consolidated financial statements presented herein are stated in Japanese yen, the currency of the country in which the Company is incorporated and operates. The rate of ¥151 to 1 USD, the approximate current rate of exchange on March 31, 2024, has been applied for the purpose of presentation of the accompanying consolidated financial statements in U.S. dollars. These amounts in U.S. dollars are included solely for convenience and are unaudited. These translations do not imply that the actual Japanese yen amounts have been or could be converted into U.S. dollars at this or any other rate of exchange.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements are not intended to present the consolidated financial position, results of operations and cash flows in accordance with accounting principles and practices generally accepted in countries and jurisdictions other than Japan.

II. Business Overview

1. Management policy, management environment, issues to address

Any forward-looking statements in the following discussion are based on the judgment of the Company group (the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries; also referred to as “Nintendo”) as of the end of the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2024.

(1) Basic management policy

As an entertainment company that creates smiles, Nintendo strives to introduce new forms of entertainment while maintaining a robust corporate management. To expand our business, our highest emphasis is placed on providing consumers around the world with exciting forms of entertainment that they have never experienced before.

(2) Targeted management index

Nintendo works to constantly provide new and entertaining products and services, aiming to improve its corporate value by sustaining robust growth and increasing profit. Because Nintendo deals with entertainment products and content that naturally hold many uncertainties in terms of research and development, we have not set any specific management index targets. This allows our corporate decision-making to stay flexible in this highly competitive industry.

(3) Management environment, mid- to long-term corporate business strategy and priority business and financial issues to address

Regarding the market environment surrounding the Company group, amid growing demand for entertainment among people around the world, not only has the diversification of entertainment continued alongside advances in technology, but competition is also intensifying further as more companies enter the game industry.

Amid such changes in the market environment, as an entertainment company that creates smiles, the Company group aims to offer its unique and original brand of play that anyone and everyone can intuitively enjoy. To enable unique entertainment experiences, we place our dedicated video game platform business - integrating both hardware and software - at the center of everything we do. Under this development philosophy, we constantly aim to create unique products and services that everyone can enjoy, and that feel incredibly intuitive and fun to play, regardless of age, gender, or gaming experience.

To continue invigorating our dedicated video game platform business, our fundamental strategy is to expand the number of people who have access to Nintendo IP. Nintendo’s characters have been nurtured and grown hand in hand with the memories made by generations of consumers as they play our games. We are utilizing our characters to continue expansion into a broad range of areas, including visual content, mobile applications, theme parks and merchandise. Through these initiatives, we aim to continually create points of contact with consumers, deepen their fondness for Nintendo IP, and ultimately spark their interest in our dedicated video game platform business.

In addition, we work to maintain good, long-term relationships with each of our consumers. Nintendo Account plays a key role in those efforts as the connection point that spans platform generations and unites a variety of entertainment experiences, centered on our integrated hardware-software entertainment.

Based on our belief that the true value of entertainment lies in its uniqueness, Nintendo will strive to achieve sustainable growth and increase our corporate value by offering unique entertainment that plays to the company’s strengths, continuing to adapt to the times and cherish the spirit of creativity.

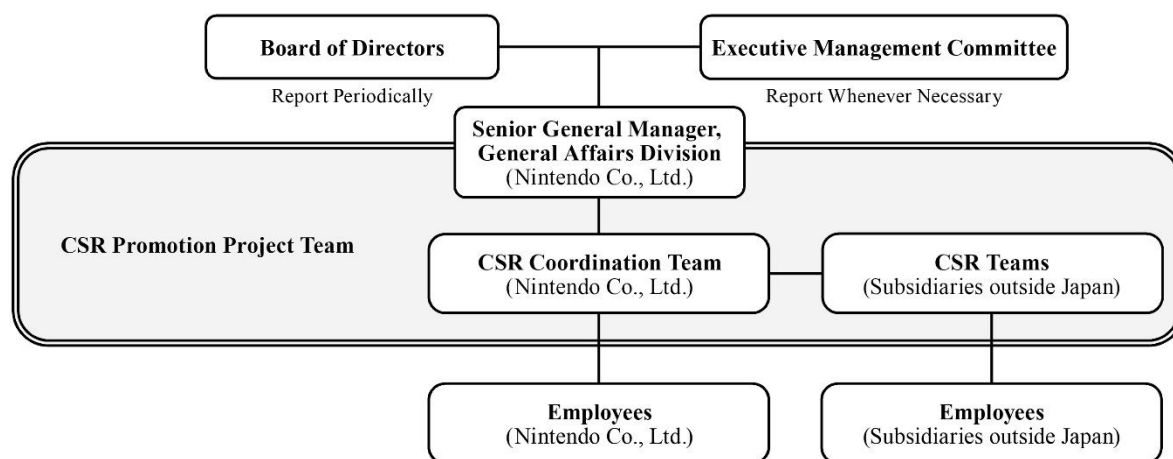

2. Approach to and initiatives for sustainability

The Company group (the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries) is engaged in group-wide efforts to address issues associated with sustainability, with the goal of “putting smiles on the faces of everyone Nintendo touches.” As part of this, the Company group is working to promote CSR activities focusing on the four priority areas of Consumers, Supply Chain, Employees and Environment. These initiatives encompass improving product quality and ensuring product safety, creating an environment where children can play with peace of mind, promoting CSR procurement through communication with suppliers, building a work environment where employees can realize their various capabilities and reducing the environmental impact of the Company group’s products and business activities.

The forward-looking statements in this section are based on the judgment of the Company group as of March 31, 2024.

(1) Governance

The Company has established the CSR Coordination Team, headed by the Senior General Manager of the General Affairs Division, who is an Executive Officer, to promote CSR activities. A framework is in place where the team reports on the status of activities to the Executive Management Committee (which consists of Representative Directors and Directors who are Executive Officers) as well as implementing or supporting specific initiatives. The team also periodically reports on the status of its activities to the Board of Directors.

(2) Strategy

The initiatives undertaken to address each priority area are as follows.

(i) Consumers

In order to provide high-quality products that are both safe and entertaining so consumers can enjoy them with peace of mind, the Company group engages in a wide range of initiatives in development, production, and after-sales service for our gaming systems and accessories. In addition, to ensure that consumers of all ages can enjoy Nintendo’s game software and services with peace of mind, we strive to prioritize safety in game software development, create features that enable parents and guardians to check children’s usage, and eliminate inappropriate content in communication features, among other initiatives.

(ii) Supply chain

We work with our numerous production partners in Japan and around the world to improve quality and technical capability, ensure safety and achieve production efficiency.

We have also established the basic procurement and business partner selection policies to promote production that complies with laws, regulations and social standards, while taking into account human rights and the global environment. We have also created these policies to build trust with our business partners so that we can fulfill our social responsibilities collaboratively together. With our basic procurement policy, Nintendo is committed to complying with laws, regulations, and social standards as well as to advancing human rights and global environmental considerations throughout all of our procurement activities. We also work with our business partners to gain their understanding of and cooperation with these policies. To facilitate these efforts, we have established the Nintendo CSR Procurement Guidelines and promote CSR procurement activities.

(iii) Employees

We are engaged in the following initiatives related to human resources development, including securing diverse talent and enhancing workplace environments.

(a) Initiatives related to human resources development, including securing diverse talent

To bring smiles to people through entertainment, we continue to provide Nintendo's unique and original brand of play to consumers around the world.

To this end, we focus on Nintendo DNA, which consists of originality, flexibility and sincerity. Using Nintendo DNA as a foundation, we have introduced a variety of human resource initiatives designed to maximize the personal development of each employee through their work experience. The process of creating games or other forms of entertainment and delivering those products or services around the world is a team effort. We emphasize teamwork and cultivate an environment that empowers employees to demonstrate their Nintendo DNA and work with enthusiasm.

At Nintendo, we actively hire and promote talent regardless of factors such as sex, age, nationality, disability, sexual orientation or gender identity. Each person can learn a great deal from their work experiences. Based on this belief, not only will we help our employees grow through the development of their individual skills, but through the accumulation of experiences working with others, cultivate individuals who act independently as active participants, continue to challenge themselves while flexibly handling change, and are able to gain understanding from and empathize with colleagues.

(b) Policy for enhancing workplace environments

We believe that the essence of creating an unprecedented level of fun lies in providing a work environment where our employees can exchange their ideas and opinions through discussions and receive timely advice from their supervisors. To enable employees to closely collaborate, pooling their strengths and valuing these relationships, we encourage active communication and better coordination in the company.

We are also aware of the importance of creating work environments where female employees can perform to their full potential. We actively work to enhance support systems and encourage the use of childcare leave, including for male employees who share child-rearing duties.

(iv) Environment

In response to society's expectations and to pass on a better environment to future generations, Nintendo exercises care with the environmental footprint of our offices and embarks on various initiatives to reduce the environmental impact of our products. These initiatives span the design stage to post-sales repair and support and continue through to recycling. More specifically, we have implemented environmental measures at each stage from design to after-sales service, such as creating designs that consider energy and resource efficiency, selecting easy-to-recycle packaging materials, implementing efficient transportation and providing after-sale repairs and support. Regarding climate change, we have identified our risks and opportunities based on 1.5°C and 4.0°C global warming scenarios, evaluated the relevant financial impact and engaged in information disclosure in accordance with the recommendations of the Task Force on Climate-Related Financial Disclosures (TCFD). We will continue to work to address climate change.

(3) Risk management

Taking into account international standards such as the GRI Standards and the social environment surrounding Nintendo, the CSR Coordination Team identifies CSR issues together with the employees in charge of CSR at our subsidiaries outside Japan. We analyze the degree of risk and opportunity and establish the priority level for the CSR issues identified according to two axes - both the impact on society and the impact on Nintendo. Next, we obtain feedback from outside experts to select potential CSR priority areas. The CSR Coordination Team meets with the people in charge of CSR at our subsidiaries outside Japan to exchange ideas and designate CSR priority areas. After reaching consensus on the results among the members of the CSR Project Promotion Team including the CSR teams of the subsidiaries outside Japan, a report is provided to executive management to set the priority areas.

The CSR Coordination Team confirms the priority areas annually and reviews them as necessary to respond flexibly to social and environmental changes.

(4) Metrics and targets

We have set goals to maintain 100% use* of childcare leave by women and increase the percentage of men utilizing childcare leave to 50% or more in terms of cumulative totals over a five-year period beginning in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022. Not all Nintendo group companies have established metrics and targets, so it is not possible to present group-wide information. Therefore, only the Company's targets and results are presented for the metrics shown below.

Metric	Target	Result (fiscal year ended March 31, 2024)
Rate of childcare leave taken among female employees	Maintain a rate of 100%* on a cumulative basis for the five years from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022	101% on a cumulative basis since the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022
Rate of childcare leave taken among male employees	50% or more on a cumulative basis for the five years from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022	78% on a cumulative basis since the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022

* The rate of childcare leave taken is calculated as the ratio of employees who began taking childcare leave during the respective fiscal year to those with a child born during the same fiscal year, and therefore may be more or less than 100%.

3. Risk factors

Listed below are the various risks that could affect the Company group's operating results, share price and financial condition. However, unpredictable risks may exist other than the risks set forth herein. Note that matters pertaining to the future presented herein are determined by Nintendo as of the end of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024.

(1) Risks around economic environment

- Fluctuation in foreign exchange rates

Nintendo distributes its products globally with sales outside of Japan accounting for more than 70% of its total sales, and the majority of monetary transactions are made in local currencies. In addition, the Company holds a substantial amount of assets in foreign currencies. Fluctuations in foreign exchange rates have a strong influence not only when accounts in foreign currencies are converted to yen-denominated assets but also when they are revaluated for financial reporting purposes. Therefore, if there are significant fluctuations in foreign exchange rates, Nintendo's financial position, operating results and cash flows could be adversely affected.

In order to reduce the influence of fluctuations in foreign exchange rates, Nintendo purchases in foreign currencies on an ongoing basis.

(2) Risks around business activities

- Fluctuation of market environment and competition against other companies

Nintendo's core business is engaged in one segment of the broader entertainment field. However, its business is also affected by a variety of other entertainment trends. If consumer preferences shift to other forms of entertainment, the video game market may shrink. The emergence of new competitors resulting from technological innovation could have a significant impact as well. In the video game industry, it may become even more difficult to be profitable due to large investments required in research and development and marketing. In addition, competition may intensify with large-scale companies doing business in the same industry or in other segments of the entertainment industry. Furthermore, if Nintendo is unable to adapt to rapid structural changes or other changes, its financial position, operating results and cash flows could be adversely affected.

As an entertainment company that creates smiles, the Company group aims to offer its unique and original brand of play that anyone and everyone can intuitively enjoy. To enable unique entertainment experiences, we place our dedicated video game platform business - integrating both hardware and software - at the center of everything we do, and work to provide new and original products and services for people everywhere. Moreover, to continue invigorating our core business, the Company group's fundamental strategy is to expand the number of people who have access to Nintendo IP. To this end, we seek to broaden the touch points of Nintendo IP with consumers in areas beyond dedicated video game platforms and create opportunities for more people to become interested in gaming experiences. In addition, we work to maintain a long-term relationship with each of our consumers through Nintendo Account as a way to connect these initiatives.

- Development of new products, etc.

Despite the substantial costs and time needed for the planning and development of software for dedicated video game platforms, applications for smart-device gaming services, and visual content, there is no guarantee that all new products and services will be accepted by consumers due to ever shifting preferences. As development of hardware is time-consuming, with technology continuously advancing, Nintendo may not be able to readily acquire technologies required for entertainment. Furthermore, delays of product launches could adversely affect market share.

In addition, due to the nature of Nintendo products and services, it may be difficult to develop products and services as planned in some cases, making it impossible to sell or launch the products and services as planned. Moreover, development may be suspended or aborted, and the original plan could differ to a large extent.

In the field of entertainment, the development process is complicated and includes many uncertainties; therefore, if Nintendo is unable to deal with the above risks, its financial position, operating results and cash flows could be adversely affected.

Nintendo continuously strives to develop unique and attractive new products.

- Product valuation and adequate inventory procurement

Given that general products in the video game industry have relatively short life cycles, and are significantly impacted by consumer preferences as well as seasonality, excess inventory and obsolete inventory could have an adverse effect on Nintendo's financial position, operating results and cash flows.

Business opportunities could be missed if supply to the market falls short of the necessary quantity due to difficulties in accurately forecasting demand. At Nintendo, projected production is conducted and sales of downloadable versions of software are promoted in order to guarantee supply based on forecasted demand.

- Dependency on outside manufacturers
 Nintendo commissions outside companies to produce key components and assemble finished products. In the event one or more of these outside companies go bankrupt, Nintendo may have difficulty procuring key components or manufacturing its products. In addition, suppliers may be unable to provide necessary components on a timely basis. A shortage of key components could cause issues such as marginal decline due to higher costs, shortage of products and quality control issues. These issues may impair the relationship between Nintendo and consumers. Furthermore, as many suppliers' production facilities are located outside Japan, a decline in local public safety, natural disasters, epidemics or any other incidents, or other issues specific to the area could interrupt production and negatively affect Nintendo's operating performance. Regarding production, Nintendo hedges risks by procuring parts and materials from and outsourcing production to multiple companies in most cases. For important components, we have identified all processes, places of production, persons in charge, etc. and have a management system in place which, even in the unlikely event of an unforeseeable incident, will enable us to get a grasp of the status of damage caused by the accident and take an alternative action as swiftly as possible.
 - Business operations affected by seasonal fluctuation
 Demand for Nintendo's products is largely focused on the year-end sales season, New Year season, etc., so our business performance fluctuates accordingly. Should Nintendo fail to release attractive new products or supply products on time during that period, operating performance could be adversely affected. Nintendo strives to achieve stable performance throughout the year through measures such as developing games that consumers will continue to play long after they are released and providing paid services in its digital business that can be enjoyed on a continuing basis.
 - System issues
 Nintendo provides various services via the internet, including online games and download sales of digital software, in addition to providing information. However, in the event of the termination or destruction of the operating systems, or the leakage or unauthorized use of data, etc. as a result of a cyber-attack against servers, a natural disaster or an accident, it could have an adverse effect on Nintendo's future operating results, share price and financial condition. Considering that networking functions are becoming increasingly important in the Company's business, Nintendo is enhancing assigned in-house resources, hiring necessary human resources, collaborating with outside expert firms and making other such efforts to strengthen its capabilities to deal with system issues.
 - Various factors affecting business activities
 Nintendo develops business globally. Business activities in Japan and outside of Japan involve risks such as disadvantages from emergence of political or economic factors, disadvantages from inconsistency of multilateral taxation systems and diversity of tax law interpretation, difficulty in recruiting and securing human resources, labor disputes such as strikes, and social disruption resulting from terror attacks, war and other catastrophic events. If the planning, development, manufacturing, distribution, sales, etc. of products and services are hindered, Nintendo's financial position, operating results and cash flows could be adversely affected. Nintendo will take necessary measures on an ongoing basis.
- (3) Risks around legal regulations and litigation
- Product liability
 Nintendo develops and manufactures its products in accordance with applicable safety and quality control standards in locations of sale. However, large-scale product recalls may take place should a defect occur, given that its products are sold worldwide. Also, a product defect resulting in product liability compensation could lead to additional expenses and impact the Company's reputation, and has the potential to adversely impact Nintendo's future operating performance and financial position. With full awareness of product liability, Nintendo will continue to proactively work on quality control and quality assurance of products in terms of design, manufacturing and ancillary services.
 - Limitations of enforcing intellectual property rights
 Although Nintendo has continued to accumulate various intellectual properties which enable the differentiation of its offerings from others, there are geographical regions in which it is difficult to effectively address unauthorized uploading via the internet and counterfeit products, which may have a negative impact on Nintendo's future operating performance and financial position. Nintendo will take necessary measures on an ongoing basis.

- Unauthorized system access and leakage of confidential information
Nintendo possesses personal information about its consumers, as well as confidential information concerning development and business operations. If this information were ever leaked outside of Nintendo or used improperly by third parties due to unauthorized access to systems, etc., it could have an adverse effect on Nintendo's future operating performance, share price and financial condition.
Nintendo will take necessary measures on an ongoing basis.
- Changes in laws and regulations, etc.
Unpredicted enactment of or changes in laws and regulations, as well as adoptions of or changes in accounting standards or taxation systems could have an effect on Nintendo's performance and financial position. In addition, conflict of views between Nintendo and the tax authorities regarding tax returns may result in additional tax expenses.
Nintendo keeps up to date with information released by government agencies and other external organizations through websites, etc. In addition, Nintendo collects information by participating in seminars hosted by external organizations and subscribing to specialized journals, etc. and conducts various studies in the lead-up to the implementation of changes in laws and regulations, etc.
- Litigation, etc.
Nintendo's operations in Japan and outside of Japan may be subject to litigation, disputes and other legal procedures, which could adversely affect Nintendo's operating performance and financial position.
Nintendo is taking various measures to reduce the risk of litigation.

(4) Other risks

Other than the risks set forth above, factors such as uncollectible notes and accounts receivable - trade, collapse of financial institutions, environmental regulations, impairment of the corporate brand due to unforeseen circumstances, changes in the political situation, rapid climate change, natural disasters or epidemics may adversely affect Nintendo's operating performance and financial position.
Nintendo will take necessary measures on an ongoing basis.

4. Analysis of financial position, operating results and cash flow by management

The description of the financial position, operating results and cash flow of Nintendo (the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries) in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 (“operating results, etc.”) and the understanding, analysis and examination of Nintendo’s operating results, etc. from the management’s viewpoint are as follows.

Any forward-looking statements contained in the following overview are made based on information available as of the end of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024.

Segment information is omitted as Nintendo operates as a single business segment.

(1) Assumptions used in important accounting procedures and estimates

Consolidated financial statements of Nintendo are prepared in accordance with accounting standards generally accepted in Japan. In preparing such statements, estimates that may affect the value of assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses are made based on the accounting procedures selected and adopted by management. Management makes appropriate assumptions based on factors such as past performance and the likelihood of future occurrences to make reasonable estimates. However, due to inherent uncertainties, the actual results may differ from these estimates. Significant accounting estimates and assumptions adopted in the consolidated financial statements of Nintendo are detailed in the section “V. Financial Information, Consolidated financial statements, etc., Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements (Significant accounting estimates).”

(2) Operating results, etc.

(i) Description and analysis of results

Looking at the Nintendo Switch business for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024, good sales were posted for The Legend of Zelda: Tears of the Kingdom, which sold 20.61 million units, Super Mario Bros. Wonder, which sold 13.44 million units and Pikmin 4, which sold 3.48 million units. In addition, the April 2023 release of The Super Mario Bros. Movie positively impacted sales of Mario related titles, such as Mario Kart 8 Deluxe which recorded sales of 8.18 million units (for cumulative sales of 61.97 million units). As a result, there were 31 titles that sold over a million units during the period, including titles from other software publishers.

Hardware sales for this period totaled 15.70 million units (a decrease of 12.6% year-on-year), and software sales totaled 199.67 million units (a decrease of 6.7% year-on-year). While this represents a decrease from the previous fiscal year, sales are steady for a platform in its eighth year after launch.

Turning to the digital business for our dedicated video game platform, downloadable versions of packaged software and add-on content for Nintendo Switch sold well, and revenue related to Nintendo Switch Online also increased. Digital sales reached ¥443.3 billion (USD 2,935 million; an increase of 9.4% year-on-year), helped also by the depreciation of the yen.

In the mobile and IP related business, sales totaled ¥92.7 billion (USD 613 million; an increase of 81.6% year-on-year), bolstered mainly by the generation of revenue related to The Super Mario Bros. Movie during this term.

Nintendo’s management policy, management strategy, etc. are as described in “II. Business Overview, 1. Management policy, management environment, issues to address.” The presence or lack of hit products and their sales volumes are deemed to have a significant impact on operating results, etc., as described in “II. Business Overview, 4. Analysis of financial position, operating results and cash flow by the management, (4) Factors which have a significant impact on operating results, etc.”

(ii) Description and analysis of operating results

Net sales, operating profit, ordinary profit and profit attributable to owners of parent in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 increased from the previous fiscal year.

Net sales reached ¥1,671.8 billion (USD 11,071 million; an increase of 4.4% year-on-year), of which sales outside of Japan were ¥1,309.2 billion (USD 8,670 million; an increase of 5.9% year-on-year, and 78.3% of total sales). Operating profit came to ¥528.9 billion (USD 3,502 million; an increase of 4.9% year-on-year) and ordinary profit was ¥680.4 billion (USD 4,505 million; an increase of 13.2% year-on-year) due to an increase in foreign exchange gains and other factors. Profit attributable to owners of parent totaled ¥490.6 billion (USD 3,249 million; an increase of 13.4% year-on-year).

(Net sales and operating profit)

Net sales increased from the previous fiscal year by ¥70.1 billion (USD 464 million) to ¥1,671.8 billion (USD 11,071 million; an increase of 4.4% on a year-on-year basis). Gross profit increased from the previous fiscal year by ¥68.8 billion (USD 455 million) to ¥954.3 billion (USD 6,319 million; an increase of 7.8% on a year-on-year basis). Due to such factors as the increase in research and development expenses and advertising expenses, selling, general and administrative expenses increased from the previous fiscal year by ¥44.3 billion (USD 293 million), resulting in an operating profit of ¥528.9 billion (USD 3,502 million; an increase of 4.9% on a year-on-year basis).

(Non-operating income and expenses, and ordinary profit)

Net non-operating income was ¥151.5 billion (USD 1,003 million), mainly due to a substantial increase in foreign exchange gains and interest income. As a result, ordinary profit was ¥680.4 billion (USD 4,505 million; an increase of 13.2% on a year-on-year basis).

(Profit attributable to owners of parent)

Profit attributable to owners of parent was ¥490.6 billion (USD 3,249 million; an increase of 13.4% on a year-on-year basis), mainly due to the increase in ordinary profit from the previous fiscal year.

(iii) Description and analysis of financial position

(Total assets)

Total assets increased by ¥297.1 billion (USD 1,967 million) compared to the previous fiscal year-end to ¥3,151.3 billion (USD 20,869 million).

This was mainly due to the increase in cash and deposits attributable to such factors as the receipt of proceeds through operating activities and the effect of the depreciation of the yen, in addition to some of them being held in the form of short-term investment securities.

(Total liabilities)

Total liabilities decreased by ¥41.4 billion (USD 274 million) compared to the previous fiscal year-end to ¥546.3 billion (USD 3,617 million).

This was mainly due to a decrease of ¥91.1 billion (USD 603 million) in notes and accounts payable - trade, resulting from the settlement of trade payables related to the Nintendo Switch platform, despite an increase of ¥12.0 billion (USD 79 million) in income taxes payable due to the increase in taxable income.

(Net assets)

Net assets increased by ¥338.5 billion (USD 2,241 million) compared to the previous fiscal year-end to ¥2,604.9 billion (USD 17,250 million).

This was mainly due to the posting of profit attributable to owners of parent in the amount of ¥490.6 billion (USD 3,249 million) and the payment of dividends of surplus in the amount of ¥236.3 billion (USD 1,564 million).

(iv) Description and analysis of cash flows

The ending balance of “Cash and cash equivalents” (collectively, “Cash”) as of March 31, 2024 was ¥853.4 billion (USD 5,651 million), with a decrease of ¥341.1 billion (USD 2,258 million) during the fiscal year. During the previous fiscal year, there was an increase of ¥171.8 billion (USD 1,137 million). Net increase (decrease) of Cash and contributing factors during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 are as follows:

(Cash flows from operating activities)

There were decreasing factors contributing to ¥680.7 billion (USD 4,507 million) of profit before income taxes such as payment of income taxes and the impact of the depreciation of the yen, in addition to a decrease in trade payable. However, due to increasing factors such as a decrease in inventories, Cash resulted in an increase of ¥462.0 billion (USD 3,059 million) compared to an increase of ¥322.8 billion during the previous fiscal year.

(Cash flows from investing activities)

Cash from investing activities decreased by ¥630.6 billion (USD 4,176 million) compared to an increase of ¥111.5 billion during the previous fiscal year mainly due to proceeds from the withdrawal of time deposits and sales and redemption of short-term and long-term investment securities being lower than payments into time deposits and purchase of short-term and long-term investment securities.

(Cash flows from financing activities)

Cash from financing activities decreased by ¥236.9 billion (USD 1,568 million) compared to a decrease of ¥290.9 billion during the previous fiscal year mainly due to payments of cash dividends.

(3) Production, orders received and sales information

(i) Production results

Production results in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 were as follows. As Nintendo operates as a single business segment, the information is presented by product type.

Type	Amount		Year-on-year increase (decrease) (%)
	(Millions of yen)	(Millions of dollars)
Dedicated video game platform
Nintendo Switch platform	918,610	6,083	(24.3)
Others	17,855	118	13.5
Subtotal	936,465	6,201	(23.8)
Others	21,777	144	361.4
Total	958,242	6,345	(22.3)

(Note) The above amounts are calculated based on the selling price.

(ii) Order-receiving status

Information on orders received is omitted as production is based on make-to-stock production, other than make-to-order production mainly for some software for dedicated video game platforms.

(iii) Sales results

Sales results in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 were as follows. As Nintendo operates as a single business segment, the information is presented by product type.

Type	Amount		Year-on-year increase (decrease) (%)
	(Millions of yen)	(Millions of dollars)
Dedicated video game platform
Nintendo Switch platform	1,532,438	10,148	1.5
Others	35,386	234	(0.9)
Subtotal	1,567,824	10,382	1.5
Mobile, IP related income, etc.	92,748	614	81.6
Others	11,293	74	98.5
Total	1,671,865	11,071	4.4

(4) Factors which have a significant impact on operating results, etc.

Nintendo operates as a business in the field of home entertainment, in which the presence or lack of hit products and their sales volumes may have a significant impact on its operating results, etc. In addition, the field of entertainment is wide in scope, and any non-gaming propositions which gain popularity that provide consumers with more entertainment value and surprises may also have an impact.

More than 70% of Nintendo's total sales are generated in markets outside of Japan, with most transactions carried out in local currencies. While Nintendo makes U.S. dollar-based purchases and purchases in other currencies on an ongoing basis in order to reduce the impact of exchange rate fluctuations, it is difficult to completely eliminate the related risk. As a result, exchange rate fluctuations may have an impact on Nintendo's financial performance.

While dedicated video game platforms and their compatible software, which are Nintendo's main products, represent a majority of total sales, hardware and software have very different profit margins, and fluctuations of their proportions of the total sales may have an impact on gross profit and the gross profit percentage to sales.

In addition, there may be other fluctuating factors as described in "II. Business Overview, 3. Risk factors."

(5) Financial source of capital and liquidity of funds

As of the end of the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2024, the current ratio is 537%, and the ratio of total liabilities to cash and cash equivalents is 1.6 times.

Nintendo maintains retained earnings that are necessary in order to adapt to changes in the business environment and to pursue further business expansion, etc. in the future.

Major components of the working capital requirements include purchase expenses of materials and parts for manufacturing, advertising expenses and research and development expenses, and dividend and income tax payments. Moreover, it is Nintendo's basic policy to internally provide the capital necessary to fund future growth, including capital investments. Nintendo ensures self-financing by cash flows from operating activities including sales of dedicated video game platforms, etc. Nintendo's approach to shareholder returns is as explained in "IV. Profile of the Company, 3. Dividend policy" and specific plans for capital investments are as described in "III. Equipment and Facilities, 3. Plans for new installation and retirement of equipment and facilities, etc."

During the launch periods of new products and the year-end sales season, there may be temporary increases in notes and accounts receivable - trade, notes and accounts payable - trade and inventories, which may have an upward or downward impact on net cash provided by or used in operating activities.

Payments into or withdrawals from time deposits with maturities of more than three months, as well as timing of acquisition or sale of short-term investment securities, may have an upward or downward impact on net cash provided by or used in investing activities.

5. Material contracts, etc.

Not applicable.

6. Research and development activities

Nintendo (the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries) primarily engages in the active development of hardware and software for dedicated video game systems, with support from various companies and organizations, in its effort to put smiles on the faces of everyone Nintendo touches around the world by offering new and compelling products that anyone can enjoy. We also utilize Nintendo IP, focusing on the production of products such as those related to amiibo and visual content, and undertake the planning, development and operation of games that many people around the world can enjoy in the form of smart-device applications.

With respect to hardware, we continuously investigate and undertake research on underlying technologies spanning data storage technology such as semiconductor memory, display technology such as liquid crystal displays, and electronic components. We also carry out research and development activities to examine the applicability of various technologies to the field of home entertainment including interfaces such as touch panels and sensors, networks such as those for wireless communication, security, cloud computing, virtual reality (VR), augmented reality (AR) and mixed reality (MR), deep learning and big data analysis. Our efforts are not limited to in-house studies and research and we are also exploring various possibilities on a daily basis to discover technologies that will help create new ways to play by proactively turning our attention outside Nintendo. Moreover, we continue to enhance the durability, safety, quality and performance of our products to ensure that consumers can comfortably enjoy them over an extended period, in addition to designing and developing various accessories and pursuing cost-cutting initiatives.

With respect to software, we take full advantage of hardware features in planning our products, and focus on game design and program development that leverages graphics, music and game scripts.

Furthermore, in order to enable digital business expansion, we have strongly driven the expansion of system infrastructure that supports network services in multiple areas, including the various network features of each software title and Nintendo eShop. In addition, we have established a research and development structure for smart-device software, and promote the planning and development of smart-device applications and the development of a back-end server system.

Regarding our parts procurement and manufacturing processes, in addition to promoting the mass production of parts that employ new test methods and technologies, we also research and accumulate knowledge pertaining to relevant laws and regulations with the cooperation and support of our manufacturing partners.

Research and development expenses for the fiscal year were ¥137.7 billion (USD 911 million), with the outcomes of major research and development activities described below. Segment information is omitted since we operate as a single business segment.

For Nintendo Switch hardware, we introduced firmware updates to enhance convenience and operational stability, released various special editions of game systems and accessories, and made ongoing improvements to the software development environment and various network services. As for compatible software, we released The Legend of Zelda: Tears of the Kingdom, the latest entry in The Legend of Zelda series. In this title, players progress through the game using the main character's ability "Ultrahand" which allows users to attach and detach a variety of objects to freely create vehicles and structures. We also released Everybody 1-2-Switch!, a party game that enables from two to up to 100 people to take part in games at get-togethers, house parties, and other gatherings, using not only Joy-Con controllers but smartphones as well. Other titles released include Pikmin 4, Super Mario Bros. Wonder, WarioWare: Move It!, each the latest in its respective series, as well as Pikmin 1+2, Super Mario RPG, Another Code: Recollection, Mario vs. Donkey Kong and Princess Peach: Showtime!

In our mobile business, we run services on an ongoing basis for game applications such as Fire Emblem Heroes, Animal Crossing: Pocket Camp, and Mario Kart Tour.

For Nintendo Switch Online, a service that enables consumers to enjoy online competitive and cooperative play and various other services on Nintendo Switch, we added more titles to Nintendo Entertainment System - Nintendo Switch Online, Super Nintendo Entertainment System - Nintendo Switch Online, and other services. We also continued reviewing the specifications for the various services based on Nintendo Account and making ongoing improvements.

In addition, on Nintendo Developer Portal, a dedicated website for game creators working on Nintendo platforms, we offer ongoing support for both development companies and individual developers to deliver new entertainment to consumers around the world.

On top of these efforts, Nintendo continues to engage in the development of various products and services for the future, including new products that improve people's QOL (Quality of Life) in enjoyable ways.

III. Equipment and Facilities

1. Overview of capital investments

Nintendo (the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries) primarily engage in the development, manufacturing and sales of entertainment products, and in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024, it invested ¥32,893 million (USD 217 million), which was mainly used for research and development facilities, and included intangible assets such as computer software for internal use.

Regarding the required funds, all of the capital investments were self-financed and we did not raise external financing. Segment information is omitted as Nintendo operates as a single business segment.

2. Major facilities

3. Dividend policy

It is the Company's basic policy to internally provide the capital necessary to fund future growth, including capital investments, and to maintain a strong and liquid financial position in preparation for changes in the business environment and intensified competition. As for direct profit returns to our shareholders, dividends are paid based on profit levels achieved in each fiscal period.

It is the Company's basic policy to distribute the surplus twice per year in the form of an interim dividend and a year-end dividend. The Articles of Incorporation of the Company stipulate that the Company "may pay an interim dividend based on a resolution approved by the Board of Directors" pursuant to the provisions of Article 454, item 5 of the Companies Act. The governing bodies which determine the interim dividend and year-end dividend are the Board of Directors and the General Meeting of Shareholders, respectively.

The annual dividend per share will be established at the higher of the amount calculated by dividing 33% of consolidated operating profit by the total number of outstanding shares, excluding treasury shares, as of the end of the fiscal year rounded up to the nearest yen, and the amount calculated based on the 50% consolidated profit standard rounded up to the nearest yen.

The interim dividend per share is calculated by dividing 33% of consolidated operating profit by the total number of outstanding shares, excluding treasury shares, as of the end of the six-month period rounded up to the nearest yen.

According to the aforementioned policy, the dividends per share for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 were calculated as an interim dividend of 80 yen (USD 0.52) and year-end dividend of 131 yen (USD 0.86).

Retained earnings are maintained for effective use in research of new technology and development of new products and services, capital investments and securing materials, enhancement of selling power including advertisements, strengthening of network infrastructure, and treasury share buyback whenever deemed appropriate.

(Note) Dividend payments for which the record date is in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 are as follows.

Date of resolution	Total amount of dividend	Dividend per share
Resolved at the meeting of the Board of Directors on November 7, 2023	¥93,139 million	¥80

4. Corporate governance

(1) Outline of corporate governance

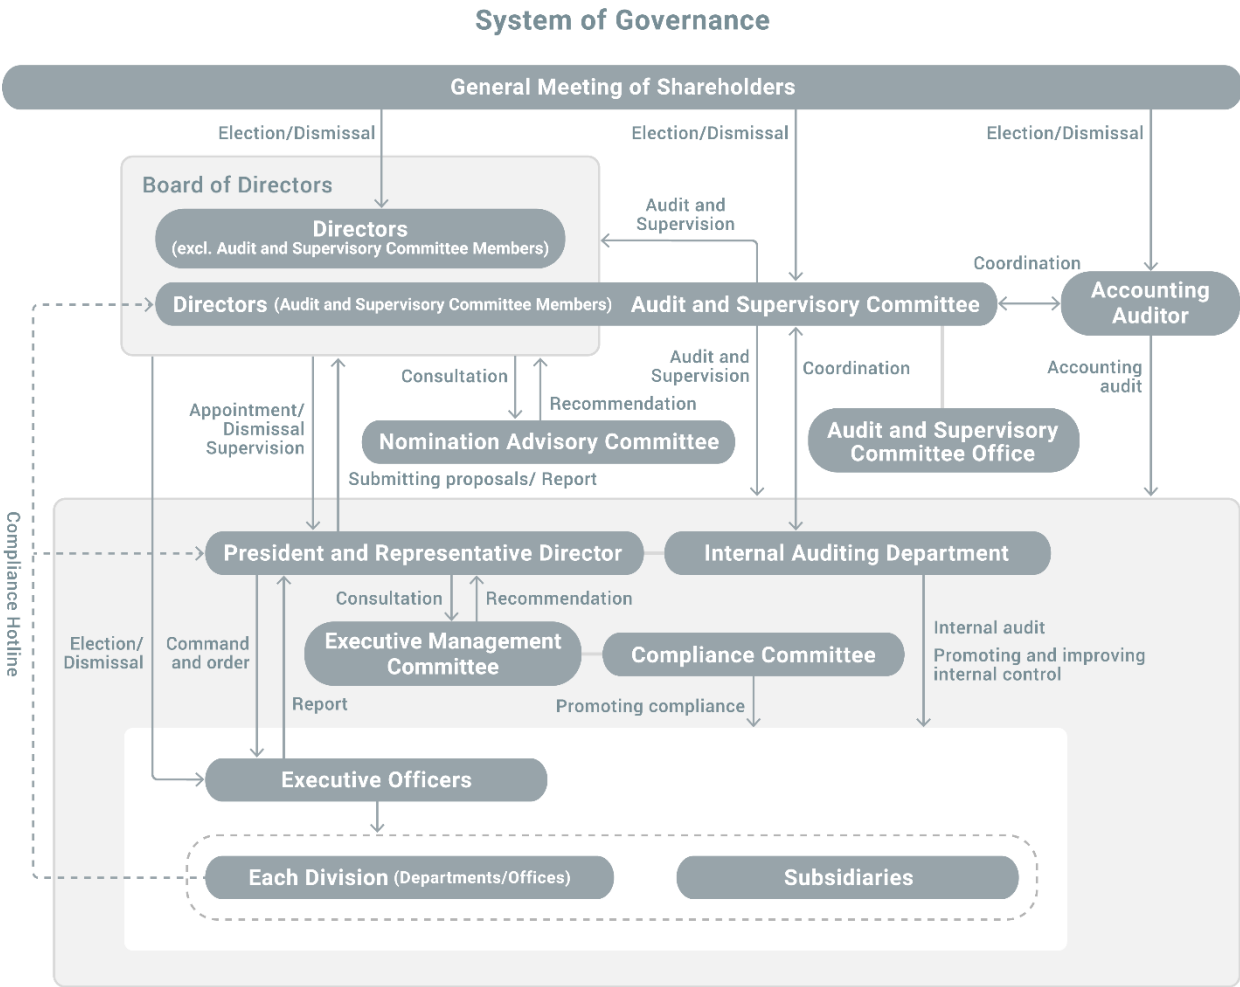

(i) Basic views on corporate governance

At Nintendo, we strive to maximize long-term, continuous corporate value while carefully considering the benefits for everyone we touch, including not only shareholders but also consumers, business partners, employees, local communities and other stakeholders. We are working to build a highly transparent and sound system of corporate governance, as well as improve our corporate ethics.

(ii) Outline of corporate governance system and reason for adoption of such system

The Company aims to strengthen the supervisory functions of the Board of Directors and further enhance the corporate governance system of the Company as a Company with an Audit and Supervisory Committee. The Company has also introduced the Executive Officer System for the purpose of clarifying the responsibility for the execution of operations, and establishing a more flexible management structure which can appropriately and swiftly respond to the rapidly changing business environment. The foregoing will be enabled by separating the management decision-making and supervisory functions from the execution of operations as well as by accelerating the delegation of authority to execute operations.

The Company’s corporate governance system is as shown below.

(Board of Directors)

The Board of Directors consists of thirteen Directors (including five Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), of whom six are Outside Directors (including four Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members). All Outside Directors meet the standards for independent officers set forth by Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc. The Board of Directors holds meetings once a month in principle, and deliberates important matters related to management in accordance with laws and regulations, etc. as the body in charge of management decision-making and supervision.

Board members: Board chairperson Shuntaro Furukawa, President and Representative Director; Shigeru Miyamoto, Representative Director; Shinya Takahashi, Corporate Director; Satoru Shibata, Corporate Director; Ko Shiota, Corporate Director; Yusuke Beppu, Corporate Director; Chris Meledandri, Outside Director; Miyoko Demay, Outside Director; Takuya Yoshimura, Corporate Director (Full-Time Audit and Supervisory Committee Member); Katsuhiko Umeyama, Outside Director (Audit and Supervisory Committee Member); Asa Shinkawa, Outside Director (Audit and Supervisory Committee Member); Eiko Osawa, Outside Director (Audit and Supervisory Committee Member); and Keiko Akashi, Outside Director (Audit and Supervisory Committee Member)

(Nomination Advisory Committee)

With the aim of increasing objectivity and transparency in the procedures for determining the nomination and compensation of Directors, etc., the Company has established the Nomination Advisory Committee, which consists of the President and Representative Director and all Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members. The Nomination Advisory Committee holds meetings at least three times per year, in principle. As a non-mandatory advisory body to the Board of Directors, the committee deliberates matters related to the nomination and compensation of Directors, etc.

Committee members: Committee chairperson Katsuhiko Umeyama, Outside Director (Audit and Supervisory Committee Member); Shuntaro Furukawa, President and Representative Director; Takuya Yoshimura, Corporate Director (Full-Time Audit and Supervisory Committee Member); Asa Shinkawa, Outside Director (Audit and Supervisory Committee Member); Eiko Osawa, Outside Director (Audit and Supervisory Committee Member); and Keiko Akashi, Outside Director (Audit and Supervisory Committee Member)

The attendance status of the Directors in office at each meeting of the Board of Directors and the Nomination Advisory Committee during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 is as follows.

During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024, the Board of Directors deliberated on important development and other projects, investment and acquisition projects, the organizational structure of the Company group, the partial amendment to resolution-making procedures of the Board of Directors, analysis and disclosure related to the cost of capital, approach to human resources, cash on hand, and other matters. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024, the Nomination Advisory Committee confirmed and exchanged opinions on the results of voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders, the composition of the Board of Directors in coming years, and the independence of Outside Directors, and deliberated on candidates for Director (including proposals for the positions of Representative Directors and Directors concurrently serving as Executive Officers) and their compensation.

(Audit and Supervisory Committee)

The Audit and Supervisory Committee consists of one full-time internal Corporate Director and four Outside Directors. The Audit and Supervisory Committee holds meetings once a month, in principle, and deliberates matters provided for in laws and regulations, etc. as the body in charge of auditing the execution of duties, in addition to exchanging audit opinions.

Committee members: Committee chairperson Takuya Yoshimura, Corporate Director (Full-Time Audit and Supervisory Committee Member); Katsuhiro Umeyama, Outside Director (Audit and Supervisory Committee Member); Asa Shinkawa, Outside Director (Audit and Supervisory Committee Member); Eiko Osawa, Outside Director (Audit and Supervisory Committee Member); and Keiko Akashi, Outside Director (Audit and Supervisory Committee Member)

The Company has established the Audit and Supervisory Committee Office which assists the Audit and Supervisory Committee in performing its duties, and has appointed one dedicated staff member in the Office.

(Executive Management Committee)

With the aim of robust promotion of corporate activities, the Company has established the Executive Management Committee consisting of Representative Directors and Corporate Directors concurrently serving as Executive Officers. The Executive Management Committee holds meetings twice per month in principle and deliberates basic policies on matters to be proposed at the meetings of the Board of Directors and management-related business execution policies and various measures.

Committee members: Committee chairperson Shuntaro Furukawa, President and Representative Director; Shigeru Miyamoto, Representative Director; Shinya Takahashi, Corporate Director; Satoru Shibata, Corporate Director; Ko Shiota, Corporate Director; and Yusuke Beppu, Corporate Director

(Compliance Committee)

With the aim of promoting compliance, the Company has established the Compliance Committee chaired by the Senior General Manager of the General Affairs Division under the Executive Management Committee. The Compliance Committee performs initiatives for promotion of compliance including establishment of the "Compliance Manual."

Committee members: Committee chairperson Kentaro Yamagishi, Senior General Manager, General Affairs Division; senior general managers of divisions and senior directors of departments/offices (sections not placed under divisions)

(iii) Other matters related to corporate governance

(a) Preparedness of risk management system

In the Company, as a general rule, each division and department manages risks pertaining to work within its jurisdiction. Furthermore, the Internal Auditing Department monitors the risk management system of each division and department, and proposes and advises on policies for improvement, etc. Further, under the Compliance Committee, thorough compliance efforts are promoted at each division and department. The Company has also established the Information Security Committee to ensure information security and the Product Safety Committee and other structures to guarantee product safety, prevent the occurrence of product accidents and ensure prompt response in the event of an accident.

The Company has established internal regulations applicable to its subsidiaries mainly to ensure efficient risk management and business operation by the subsidiaries. Pursuant to the regulations, the responsible Senior General Managers of the Company identify and manage such matters as the management status of the respective subsidiaries they are in charge of, obtaining information therefrom as necessary, and subsidiaries are required to obtain the Company's prior approval for significant matters.

(b) Summary of agreement on limitation of liability with Outside Directors

In accordance with Article 427, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act, the Company has entered into an agreement with Outside Directors to limit their liability for damages as stipulated in Article 423, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act. Pursuant to such agreement, the amount of liability for damages is limited to the amount specified by laws and regulations, and such liability limit will be recognized only when the Outside Director performed his/her duties that caused the liability in good faith and without gross negligence.

(c) Summary of director liability insurance contract

Pursuant to Article 430-3, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act, the Company has entered into a director liability insurance contract with an insurance provider. The insured are Directors and Executive Officers of the Company and officers of the Company's subsidiaries; the purpose of this insurance contract is to cover compensation for damages and litigation expenses, etc. that may be incurred by the insured while performing his/her duties or that result from pursuit of claims for such liabilities during the insurance period. However, there are certain exclusions, such as cases where an act was performed with the awareness that it constitutes a violation of laws and/or regulations. Insurance premiums are borne by the Company in full.

(d) Number of Directors

The Articles of Incorporation stipulate that the number of Directors of the Company (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) shall be no more than 15 persons, and the number of Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members shall be no more than five persons.

(e) Requirements for resolution on election of Directors

The Company has stipulated in its Articles of Incorporation that: a resolution on the election of Directors shall be passed by the majority of the votes of the shareholders present at the meeting where the shareholders holding one-third or more of the votes of the shareholders entitled to vote are present; and the resolution on the election of Directors shall not be subject to cumulative vote.

(f) Matters subject to resolution at General Meeting of Shareholders that can be resolved at Board of Directors meeting

(Acquisition of treasury shares)

The Company has stipulated in its Articles of Incorporation that, in order to execute capital policies in a flexible manner in response to changes in the business environment, the Company may acquire treasury shares subject to resolution of the Board of Directors pursuant to the provision of Article 165, Paragraph 2 of the Companies Act.

(Interim dividend)

The Company has stipulated in its Articles of Incorporation that, in order to return profits to shareholders in a flexible manner, the Company may pay an interim dividend to shareholders or registered pledgees of shares entered or recorded in the latest shareholder registry as of September 30 each year, subject to resolution of the Board of Directors.

(g) Requirements for special resolution at General Meeting of Shareholders

The Company has stipulated in its Articles of Incorporation that, in order to fulfill the quorum for a special resolution at the General Meeting of Shareholders with greater certainty, the resolutions provided for in Article 309, Paragraph 2 of the Companies Act shall be passed by two-thirds of the votes of the shareholders present at a meeting where shareholders holding one-third or more of the votes of the shareholders entitled to vote are present.

(iv) Basic Policy Regarding the Company's Control

The Company's Board of Directors believes that the decision of whether to accept another party's tender or other acquisition offer for the purpose of making large purchases of the Company's stock ultimately should be entrusted to its shareholders, given that the stock of the Company, which is a public company, is freely traded. However, it is likely that certain tender or acquisition offers may harm the Company's corporate value or the common interests of shareholders, depending on the intent of the offer, etc. The Company's Board of Directors maintains that such tender or acquisition offers are inappropriate.

As of now, any specific defensive measure in the event of a tender or acquisition offer has not yet officially been introduced, but the Company has already set up an internal system to deal with such an event. If a tender or acquisition offer is proposed, the Company will carefully judge its potential impact on its corporate value and the common interests of shareholders, and take appropriate measures with due care and prudent management.

Specifically, in addition to evaluating the offer with outside experts and negotiating with the party making the offer, the Company will establish a task force to decide on whether any specific defensive measures are necessary. If the offer is deemed inimical to the Company's corporate value or the common interests of its shareholders, the defensive measures will be determined and implemented in accordance with relevant laws and regulations.

The Company will continue to consider adoption of any defensive measures for these situations, giving due respect to laws, regulations and case law related to acquisitions, their interpretations by relevant authorities, etc.

(ii) Status of outside officers

(a) Status of appointment of Outside Directors

The Company has appointed six Outside Directors (four of whom are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members).

Outside Directors Mr. Chris Meledandri and Ms. Miyoko Demay have been appointed to provide valuable advice, while appropriately supervising the Company's management from an objective perspective, based on their broad experience and insight gained as corporate leaders and in their respective fields of entertainment and global marketing brand strategy.

Outside Directors Mr. Katsuhiro Umeyama, Ms. Asa Shinkawa, Ms. Eiko Osawa and Ms. Keiko Akashi have been appointed to audit and supervise the Company's management in an appropriate manner from an objective standpoint as Audit and Supervisory Committee Members based on their wealth of experience and broad knowledge in their respective fields of corporate accounting, legal affairs and taxation.

Of note, no material conflict of interest exists between each Outside Director and the Company. All Outside Directors have met the standards for independent officers prescribed by Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc. and have been designated as independent officers.

(b) Description of standards or policies on independence from the Company for appointment of Outside Directors

The Company has not established specific standards or policies on the independence of Outside Directors but uses the criteria for determining the independence of independent officers prescribed in the "Guidelines Concerning Listing Examination, etc." of Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc. as reference when appointing Outside Directors. In addition, importance is placed on whether or not they are capable of giving objective advice from an impartial standpoint, are of excellent caliber, and have expertise and experience.

(iii) Collaboration between supervision by Outside Directors and internal audits and audits by Audit and Supervisory Committee as well as accounting audits, and relationship with internal control division

In principle, the Company's Outside Directors (Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) attend not only Audit and Supervisory Committee meetings held monthly but also audit briefings of the Accounting Auditor where they share opinions. Furthermore, at Audit and Supervisory Committee meetings, Outside Directors receive an explanation of the operational audits conducted in the month and the results of such audits from the full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, and receive timely reports on the results of internal audits by the Internal Auditing Department.

(3) Status of audits

(i) Status of audits by Audit and Supervisory Committee

The Audit and Supervisory Committee Members attend meetings of the Board of Directors and other important meetings, inspect important documents, have regular meetings with the President and hold monthly meetings of the Audit and Supervisory Committee as a general rule to share audit opinions. Furthermore, the full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Member conducts fieldwork auditing over each division of the Company, etc., based on the annual audit plan. In collaboration with the internal auditing division, the Audit and Supervisory Committee receives timely reports on internal audit results from the Internal Auditing Department and exchanges opinions periodically. In collaboration with the Accounting Auditor, the Audit and Supervisory Committee witnesses physical inventory checks at the end of the period or receives reports on such physical inventory checks, witnesses accounting audits conducted on major subsidiaries, etc. and receives an explanation of the accounting audit plan and accounting audit results on a regular basis. The Audit and Supervisory Committee also exchanges information and opinions as necessary and forms an opinion on the appropriateness of the audit by the Accounting Auditor.

Among the Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, two Outside Directors are certified public accountants or certified tax accountants and have considerable financial and accounting knowledge.

In the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024, the Audit and Supervisory Committee held 13 meetings; the attendance status of each Audit and Supervisory Committee Member is as follows.

Classification	Name	Number of meetings held	Number of meetings attended
Corporate Director, Member of the Board (Full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Member)	Takuya Yoshimura	13	13
Outside Director, Member of the Board (Audit and Supervisory Committee Member)	Katsuhiro Umeyama	13	13
Outside Director, Member of the Board (Audit and Supervisory Committee)	Masao Yamazaki	13	13

Member)
Outside Director, Member of the Board (Audit and Supervisory Committee Member)	Asa Shinkawa	13	13

(ii) Status of internal audits

For internal audits, the Internal Auditing Department of the Company consisting of seven members conducts operational audits with respect to the Company and its subsidiaries in view of the effectiveness and efficiency of operations, asset preservation status and compliance as a dedicated division that is independent of divisions that execute operations. In order to ensure the appropriateness and reliability of financial reporting, the Internal Auditing Department manages internal controls and assesses the implementation status of such controls in compliance with the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act. The results of these audits are directly reported at regular meetings with the President and Representative Director and the Audit and Supervisory Committee Members.

Furthermore, the respective divisions in charge of internal auditing established in major subsidiaries collaborate with the Internal Auditing Department and divide auditing tasks between them, conducting similar audits, etc. centering on major subsidiaries.

(iii) Status of accounting audits

To the extent that investigation is possible, the Company confirmed that it had concluded an auditing agreement with PricewaterhouseCoopers Japan LLC (formerly Hisaji Miyamura Office) on accounting audits pursuant to the Companies Act and the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act since 1962. In close collaboration with the Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and the Internal Auditing Department, the Accounting Auditor reports audit plans and audit results, exchanges necessary information and opinions even during the period, and conducts audits in an effective and efficient manner. The names of certified public accountants (CPAs) who performed the work and assistants engaged in audit work in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 were as follows.

CPAs who performed accounting audit work

Engagement Partner	Keiichiro Kagi
Engagement Partner	Takuya Urakami

Assistants engaged in accounting audit work: Four CPAs and 17 other persons

* Other persons are persons who passed the CPA examination, persons in charge of system auditing, etc.

(f) Change in accounting firm

The Company's auditing firm has changed as follows.

Fiscal year ended March 31, 2023 (consolidated and non-consolidated) PricewaterhouseCoopers Kyoto

Fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 (consolidated and non-consolidated) PricewaterhouseCoopers Japan LLC

The matters presented in the extraordinary report are as follows.

i) Name of the independent auditors affected by the change

(f) Surviving independent auditor
PricewaterhouseCoopers Japan LLC

(ii) Dissolving independent auditor
PricewaterhouseCoopers Kyoto

ii) Date of change

December 1, 2023

iii) Most recent date of appointment of the dissolving independent auditor

1962

The date of appointment above represents the extent to which investigation is possible. In 1962, the Company concluded an auditing agreement with PricewaterhouseCoopers Kyoto (then Hisaji Miyamura Office).

iv) Matters concerning the opinions, etc. of the dissolving independent auditor prepared in audit reports, etc. during the last three years

Not applicable

v) Decision on the change or reasons for and background to the change

PricewaterhouseCoopers Kyoto (the dissolving accounting firm), which was the Company's accounting auditor, merged with PricewaterhouseCoopers Aarata LLC on December 1, 2023, and ceased to exist. On the same day, the name of PricewaterhouseCoopers Aarata LLC was changed to PricewaterhouseCoopers Japan LLC. As a result, PricewaterhouseCoopers Japan LLC is now the independent auditor that provides the Company with audit certification.

vi) Opinion of the dissolving independent auditor on matters related to reasons and background in (5), above, presented in the auditor's reports, etc.

The Company has received notice that there is no particular opinion.

(iv) Policy and reason for appointment of audit firm and evaluation of audit firm by Audit and Supervisory Committee

The Company's policy for determining the termination or nonrenewal of appointment of the Accounting Auditor is: in the event that the Accounting Auditor is deemed to have met any of the grounds set forth in the clauses of Article 340, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act, the Audit and Supervisory Committee shall terminate the appointment of the Accounting Auditor subject to the unanimous consent of the Audit and Supervisory Committee Members. In addition, should the Accounting Auditor be deemed unable to execute its duties properly or should the replacement of the Accounting Auditor be deemed reasonable in order to enhance the appropriateness of the audits, the Audit and Supervisory Committee shall determine the details of the proposal to terminate or not reappoint the Accounting Auditor for submission to the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The Audit and Supervisory Committee has acknowledged that the Accounting Auditor's audit methods and results are reasonable, having collected information on the Accounting Auditor's independence, audit system, audit implementation status, quality, etc. from the Company's accounting division, internal auditing division and the Accounting Auditor itself. The Audit and Supervisory Committee has also determined that it would be appropriate to reappoint PricewaterhouseCoopers Japan LLC, having evaluated that PricewaterhouseCoopers Japan LLC can be expected to continue conducting appropriate audits, based on the policy for determining the termination or nonrenewal of appointment of the Accounting Auditor and other evaluation standards.

(v) Compensation for audits, etc.

(h) Policy for determination of compensation for audits

The Company determines the amount of compensation for audits to the audit firm in consideration of the retention of independence of the audit firm, the characteristics of services and the number of days taken to conduct audits.

(i) Reason why Audit and Supervisory Committee agreed on amount of compensation, etc. for independent auditor

The Audit and Supervisory Committee determined that the Accounting Auditor's compensation, etc. for this fiscal year is appropriate and agreed on it as a result of the review of information collected from the Company's relevant departments-i.e., the General Accounting & Control Department and the Internal Auditing Department-regarding the contents of the audit plan, the basis of calculating the compensation estimate and a comparison with previous audit details, and the Accounting Auditor's compensation with necessary materials reported and submitted by the Accounting Auditor.

(4) Compensation for officers, etc.

(i) Policy, etc. for the determination of compensation, etc. for officers or calculation method thereof

The Company has established the following policy (hereinafter referred to as the "Decision Policy") for determining the details of compensation to individual Directors. The Decision Policy was established by resolution of the Board of Directors, after deliberation by the Nomination Advisory Committee.

The compensation for the Company's Directors who are not Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members is determined within their respective upper limits which are established by resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The Company uses results of a compensation survey by an external research agency as a reference for setting compensation standards, etc. The Company has also established a system in which matters related to compensation are deliberated in advance at a non-mandatory Nomination Advisory Committee, mainly consisting of Outside Directors, and reported to the Board of Directors.

(a) Compensation for Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members)

Compensation for Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) consists of fixed compensation, performance-based compensation as short-term incentives, and stock compensation as long-term incentives. However, compensation for Outside Directors consists solely of fixed compensation, in view of their position of providing supervision and advice on management, without engaging in business execution.

The Company has not determined specific relative proportions of fixed compensation, performance-based compensation, and stock compensation.

i) Fixed compensation

The amount of fixed compensation to individual Directors is decided by the President and Representative Director, under authority delegated by the Board of Directors, based on each Director's position and responsibilities, including whether or not he or she engages in business execution. Fixed compensation is paid in the same amount monthly.

ii) Performance-based compensation

The performance-based compensation is calculated using a formula that uses consolidated operating profit as a benchmark and is determined in advance by the Board of Directors based on points corresponding to each Director's position within the cap set by a resolution of the Board of Directors. It is paid at a designated time each year.

In addition to that, when both the average of consolidated operating profit of the most recent three fiscal years including the fiscal year of payment, and the consolidated operating profit of the fiscal year of payment exceed the amount set in advance by the Board of Directors, an additional amount of performance-based compensation shall be paid. This additional amount is calculated with a formula set in advance by the Board of Directors.

iii) Stock compensation

Stock compensation is paid with restricted stock. The number of shares allocated to each Director is decided by the Board of Directors according to the Director's position, and the compensation is paid at a designated time each year. Restrictions on the transfer of shares are lifted when the Director leaves both the offices of Director and Executive Officer.

(b) Compensation for Directors (Audit and Supervisory Committee Members)

Compensation for Directors (Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) consists only of fixed compensation in view of the fact that they are in the position of engaging in audit and supervision duties independently from Directors who execute operations. Individual compensation amounts are determined through discussion between Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, and paid in the same amount monthly.

(Note) Calculation method of performance-based compensation for each Director (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members)

Performance-based compensation for each Director (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) uses consolidated operating profit as a benchmark, in order to raise awareness regarding improvement of business performance. It is calculated using the following formula:

- Consolidated operating profit \times 0.3% \times Number of points of each Director \div Sum total of Directors' points*

However, the total amount of performance-based compensation is limited to ¥880 million (USD 5 million). This limit is reached when consolidated operating profit is ¥400.0 billion (USD 2,649 million).

* The sum total of Directors' points shall be set at 30.0 (fixed) if it falls short of 30.0.

Director's points by position and number of Directors

Position	Points	Number of Directors (persons)	Total points
President and Representative Director	6.0	1	6.0
Executive Fellow and Representative Director	4.5	1	4.5
Senior Managing Executive Officer and Corporate Director	4.5	1	4.5
Managing Executive Officer and Corporate Director	3.0	1	3.0
Senior Executive Officer and Corporate Director	2.0	2	4.0
Sum total	-	6	22.0

(Note) The above is calculated based on the number of Directors as of June 28, 2024.

- In the event that the consolidated operating profit average over the latest three fiscal years (including the fiscal year of payment) exceeds ¥400.0 billion (USD 2,649 million) and the consolidated operating profit in the fiscal year of payment exceeds ¥400.0 billion (USD 2,649 million), the following is added:

[Consolidated operating profit average over the latest three fiscal years (including the fiscal year of payment) – ¥400.0 billion (USD 2,649 million)] × 0.02%

However, the upper limit of the amount of compensation added for each person is ¥40 million (USD 0 million).

Matters of note

- Directors refer to executive officers set forth in Article 34, paragraph (1), item (iii) of the Corporation Tax Act.
- “Indicator of the status of profit in the business year ending on or after the first day of the period in which duties pertaining to such remuneration are performed” provided for in Article 34, paragraph (1), item (iii)(a) of the Corporation Tax Act shall mean consolidated operating profit.
- No target has been set for consolidated operating profit, which is the benchmark for performance-based compensation, as described in “II. Business Overview, 1. Management policy, management environment, issues to address, (2) Targeted management index.” Consolidated operating profit results for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 were as stated under “V. Financial Information, Consolidated financial statements, etc., (1) Consolidated financial statements, (ii) Consolidated statements of income and consolidated statements of comprehensive income.”
- The amount of consolidated operating profit and consolidated operating profit average used to calculate the amount of performance-based compensation shall be rounded down to the nearest hundred million yen. However, with respect to the performance-based compensation addition requirement, for the purpose of determining whether or not the amount of consolidated operating profit and consolidated operating profit average exceeds ¥400.0 billion (USD 2,649 million), the amount shall be calculated in a unit of one yen.
- If a Director has resigned before the expiry of his/her term of office due to unavoidable circumstances, the amount corresponding to the number of months he/she was in office from the time of commencement of such period up to the end of the period (number of days falling short of one month shall be rounded up to one month) shall be paid. However, the amount shall not be prorated with respect to the number of months in cases where a Director resigns after the end of the period.

(ii) Resolutions by the General Meeting of Shareholders regarding compensation, etc. for officers

A resolution has been adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders to classify the compensation to Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) into i) monetary compensation, including fixed compensation and performance-based compensation, and ii) stock compensation, and to set the respective upper limits as follows. These limits do not include portions of their remuneration or bonuses as employees.

(a) Monetary compensation: Not exceeding ¥1,800 million (USD 11 million) per year

This includes fixed compensation not exceeding ¥500 million (USD 3 million) per year (including ¥100 million (USD 0 million) for Outside Directors)

These limits were approved by resolution of the 84th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 27, 2024. There were eight Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members but including two Outside Directors) at the conclusion of the 84th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

(b) Stock compensation: Monetary compensation claims not exceeding ¥100 million (USD 0 million) per year to be paid for granting restricted stock and the number of shares not exceeding 10,000 shares per year.

(Note) The Company enacted a 10-for-1 stock split of its common stock with an effective date of October 1, 2022. The maximum number of shares shown above is the number after adjusting for this stock split.

These limits were approved by resolution of the 82nd Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 29, 2022. There were six Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members but including one Outside Director) at the conclusion of the 82nd Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

At the 76th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders on June 29, 2016, a resolution was adopted to establish an upper limit on compensation to Directors (Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) of ¥100 million (USD 0 million) per year. There were four Directors (Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) at the conclusion of the 76th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

- (Notes) 1. The amount of compensation to Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) is determined at the Board of Directors meeting held after the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders and the amount of compensation to Directors (Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) is determined subject to discussion among Audit and Supervisory Committee Members at the meeting of the Audit and Supervisory Committee held after said Board of Directors' meeting for their respective terms of office (limited to cases in which there is reelection associated with expiry of term of office).
2. The details of compensation to individual Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 were determined in accordance with the Decision Policy established by resolution of the Board of Directors after deliberation by the Nomination Advisory Committee. Regarding compensation paid, the amounts of fixed compensation were decided by the President and Representative Director based on each Director's position and responsibilities, including whether or not he or she engages in the execution of operations, and the amounts of performance-based compensation were calculated using a formula determined by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors therefore deems these amounts to be in compliance with the Decision Policy.
3. The Company judges that the President and Representative Director is most aptly suited to carrying out comprehensive evaluation of each Director's responsibilities. Decisions regarding the amounts of fixed compensation to individual Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 have therefore been delegated to the Company's President and Representative Director, Mr. Shuntaro Furukawa. Before deciding on these amounts of compensation, they are subject to deliberation by the non-mandatory Nomination Advisory Committee.
4. Employee salaries (including bonuses) paid to Directors who also serve as employees, which amounted to ¥125 million (USD 0 million), are not included in the above amounts.
5. The amount of restricted stock compensation is the amount expensed in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024.

(5) Shareholding status

(i) Criteria for and approach to classification of investment shares

In principle, it is the Company's policy not to hold any investment shares for pure investment purposes; the Company exclusively holds investment shares for purposes other than pure investment in accordance with its shareholding policy.

(ii) Investment shares held for purposes other than pure investment

(a) Shareholding policy, method of verifying the rationality of shareholding and verification at Board of Directors meetings, etc. as to whether or not to hold individual issues

The Company holds investment shares for the purpose of maintaining and developing business alliances and business relationships if it is deemed to contribute to improving corporate value over the mid- to long-term. At its meetings, the Board of Directors confirms the purpose and rationality of holding individual investment shares (limited to listed stocks) and then verifies the propriety of holding such shares on an annual basis in light of the Company's shareholding policy. As a result of this verification, the Company considers the disposal of investment shares whose significance of holding is deemed to have diminished, with the aim of reducing such holdings.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Significant matters forming the basis of preparing the consolidated financial statements

1. Scope of consolidation

- (1) Number of consolidated subsidiaries: 26 companies
The names of significant consolidated subsidiaries are omitted because they are provided in “I. Overview of the Company, 4. Subsidiaries and associates.”
During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024, one newly established company was included in the scope of consolidation and three companies were excluded from the scope of consolidation due to organizational restructuring, etc.
- (2) Number of unconsolidated subsidiaries: 2 companies
The main unconsolidated subsidiary is Fukuei Co., Ltd.
The above is unconsolidated because it is a small-scale company and does not have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements with respect to total assets, net sales, profit or loss, retained earnings, etc.

2. Application of the equity method

- (1) Number of associates accounted for under the equity method: 4 companies
The main associate accounted for under the equity method is The Pokémon Company.
- (2) Unconsolidated subsidiaries not accounted for under the equity method
The main unconsolidated subsidiary not accounted for under the equity method is Fukuei Co., Ltd.
This is because the impact of said company on profit or loss, retained earnings, etc., is negligible, and it is immaterial as a whole.
- (3) With respect to associates accounted for under the equity method whose account closing dates differ from the consolidated account closing date, the financial statements of each of the companies, either based on their fiscal year or based on provisional accounts closing, are incorporated.

3. Year-ends of consolidated subsidiaries

Of consolidated subsidiaries, iQue (China) Ltd. and one other subsidiary close accounts on December 31 every year. As the difference between closing dates is within three months, the above subsidiaries were accounted for based on the financial statements as of the account closing date of each subsidiary. Necessary adjustments were made to the consolidated financial statements to reflect any significant transactions that took place between their account closing dates and the consolidated account closing date.

4. Accounting procedures

- (1) Valuation basis and method for important assets
 - (i) Securities
For held-to-maturity debt securities, the amortized cost method (straight-line method) is used. For other securities excluding stocks, etc. without market prices, the market price method is used (valuation difference is reported as a component of net assets and the cost of sales is calculated using the moving average method), and stocks, etc. without market prices are stated at cost using the moving-average method.
 - (ii) Derivatives
The fair value method is applied.
 - (iii) Inventories
They are mainly stated at cost using the moving-average method (the figures shown in the balance sheets have been calculated by writing them down based on decline in profitability).

(2) Depreciation and amortization methods of significant depreciable and amortizable assets

(i) Property, plant and equipment (excluding leased assets):

The Company and its consolidated subsidiaries in Japan apply the declining balance method, but certain tools, furniture and fixtures are subject to depreciation based on their useful lives in line with their commercial obsolescence. However, the straight-line method is applied for buildings (excluding accompanying facilities), acquired on April 1, 1998 or thereafter and for facilities attached to buildings and structures acquired on April 1, 2016, and thereafter. Consolidated subsidiaries outside of Japan apply the straight-line method based on the estimated economic useful lives.

Useful lives of main assets are as follows:

Buildings and structures	3-60 years
--------------------------	------------

(ii) Intangible assets (excluding leased assets):

Intangible assets are amortized using the straight-line method. Software for internal use is amortized over the estimated internal useful life (principally five years).

(iii) Leased assets

Leased assets in finance lease transactions that do not transfer ownership

The straight-line method with no residual value is applied, regarding the lease term as useful life.

(3) Accounting for significant reserves

(i) Allowance for doubtful accounts

The Company and its consolidated subsidiaries in Japan provide the allowance for doubtful accounts based on the historical analysis of loss experienced for general receivables and on individual evaluations of uncollectible amounts for specific receivables including doubtful accounts. Consolidated subsidiaries outside of Japan provide the allowance for doubtful accounts based on the individual evaluation of uncollectible amount for each receivable.

(ii) Provision for bonuses

The Company and certain consolidated subsidiaries provide the reserve for the estimated amount of bonuses to be paid to the employees.

(iii) Provision for Directors' compensation

The Company provides for Directors' compensation based on the estimated amount of compensation payable to Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Outside Directors).

(4) Accounting method for retirement benefits

(i) Periodic allocation method for estimated benefit obligation

Upon calculating the retirement benefit obligations, the estimated benefit obligation is attributed to periods up until the end of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024, on a benefit formula basis.

(ii) Amortization method for actuarial gains and losses and past service cost

Actuarial gains and losses and past service cost are processed collectively in the year in which they are incurred.

(iii) Application of simple method at small enterprises, etc.

Some consolidated subsidiaries apply a simple method including a method in which an estimated amount required to be paid for voluntary retirement benefits at the end of the fiscal year is deemed as the retirement benefit obligations in the calculations of retirement benefit liability and retirement benefit expenses.

Assets in the Company's defined benefit corporate pension plan are recorded as "Retirement benefit asset" under investments and other assets as the plan assets exceeded the retirement benefit obligations.

(5) Standards of translation into yen of significant assets or liabilities denominated in foreign currencies

All the monetary receivables and payables of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries in Japan denominated in foreign currencies are translated into Japanese yen based on the spot rate of exchange in the foreign exchange market on the respective account closing dates. The foreign exchange gains and losses from translation are recognized in the accompanying consolidated statements of income. Assets or liabilities of consolidated subsidiaries outside of Japan, etc. are translated into yen based on the spot rate of exchange in the foreign exchange market on the account closing date, while revenue and expenses are translated into yen based on the average rate of exchange for the fiscal year. The differences resulting from such translations are included in "Foreign currency translation adjustment" under net assets.

(6) Amortization method and amortization period of goodwill

Goodwill is primarily amortized in equal amounts over a period of five years. However, in cases where goodwill is immaterial in amount, such goodwill is written off in full in the accrued fiscal year.

(7) Scope of cash and cash equivalents in the consolidated statements of cash flow

“Cash and cash equivalents” include cash on hand, time deposit which can be withdrawn on demand and short-term investments, with little risk of fluctuation in value and maturity within three months or less of the acquisition date, which are promptly convertible to cash.

(8) Important standards of accounting for revenue and expenses

The Company group is engaged in the development, manufacture, and sale, etc. of entertainment products in the home entertainment field. Specifically, the Company group sells products such as video game hardware, software, and accessories, and also provides various services such as Nintendo Switch Online. In addition, it sells services and content for mobile applications.

The details of the main performance obligations concerning revenue arising from contracts with customers in the Company group’s major businesses, and the usual timing of the fulfillment of these performance obligations (the usual timing of revenue recognition) are as follows.

(i) Dedicated video game platforms

The transaction price is deemed to be the consideration expected to be received in return for the product or service. Because this consideration is generally expected to be received within one year after performance obligations have been fulfilled, it does not contain a significant element of financing. The Company generally recognizes revenue in the full amount of this consideration. However, in cases such as downloadable software from software publishers, the Company recognizes revenue equal to the amount of sales commission that the Company group will receive.

Regarding revenue from sales of products such as hardware, software, and accessories, control is usually deemed to be transferred to the customer, and performance obligations fulfilled, on the day when these products are scheduled to arrive at the place designated by the customer. However, in the case of downloadable software and add-on content, performance obligations are deemed to be fulfilled when the product or content becomes available for the customer to use. Therefore, in the case of advance sales, or when add-on content is yet to be distributed, revenue recognition is deferred until the date when the software or content becomes available for the customer to use. When add-on content is distributed in multiple stages, the standalone selling price at each stage is estimated from observable information, and the transaction price is allocated between each stage. The unused portion of the pre-charged balances used to purchase products and services on e-commerce websites operated by the Company group is recognized as revenue in proportion to customer usage patterns.

Some of the Company group’s products include a performance obligation to enable customers to update the product free of charge. In cases such as these, the Company estimates the standalone selling price of the update and the date when the update will become available for use. The performance obligation associated with the portion of the transaction price allocated to the update is deemed fulfilled on this date.

Among the services provided by the Company group, performance obligations for paid membership services such as Nintendo Switch Online are deemed to be progressively fulfilled throughout the subscription period, as services are provided throughout this period.

The Company group also provides a rewards program that allows customers to exchange points for the Company’s products and services in the future. For points that arise in association with the sale of products or services, the Company estimates the standalone selling price to be allocated to the portion of the points expected to be used. The transaction price is allocated between the product or service and the points expected to be used. For the rewards program, performance obligations are deemed to be fulfilled when the customer uses the points.

(ii) Mobile and IP related income, etc.

For mobile and IP related income, etc. from the sale of mobile applications, performance obligations are deemed to be fulfilled when the application becomes available for the customer to use. For in-game currency sold on mobile applications, performance obligations are deemed to be fulfilled when the customer uses the currency. Performance obligations for paid membership services are deemed to be progressively fulfilled throughout the subscription period.

For IP related income, revenue is generally recognized as customers use the Company’s IP.

(Significant accounting estimates)

Valuation of inventories

(1) Amount recorded in the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024

	Previous fiscal year (As of March 31, 2023)	Current fiscal year (As of March 31, 2024)
Inventories	¥258,628 million	¥155,987 million	USD 1,033 million

(2) Information on the details of significant accounting estimates related to the identified items

The Company group recorded inventories of ¥155,987 million (USD 1,033 million) on the consolidated balance sheets for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024. Of this amount, finished goods accounted for ¥89,638 million (USD 593 million), including a write-down on finished goods of ¥20,289 million (USD 134 million).

The moving average cost method is the main method used for the valuation of inventory (the value shown on the balance sheets represents book value reduced in accordance with declines in profitability). This method of inventory valuation focuses on factors such as inventory turnover rates based on past sales results, and market conditions, to estimate the possibility of achieving future sales plans. Product lifecycle in the Company group's businesses is relatively short, and there is therefore a degree of uncertainty regarding the probability that finished goods will be sold. The closing balance of inventories and cost of sales for the fiscal period will be affected if net selling price and recoverable amount fall below expectations, or, if sales of products for which a valuation write-down was previously recorded exceed sales plans.

Valuation of deferred tax assets

(1) Amount recorded in the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024

	Previous fiscal year (As of March 31, 2023)	Current fiscal year (As of March 31, 2024)
Deferred tax assets	¥103,670 million	¥107,852 million	USD 714 million

(2) Information on the details of significant accounting estimates related to the identified items

The Company group recorded deferred tax assets of ¥107,852 million (USD 714 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024.

The recoverability of deferred tax assets is determined based on estimates of future taxable income, etc. based on business plans. Deferred tax assets are recorded for deductible differences that the Company considers are likely to reduce taxable income in the future. The Company generates a stable taxable income, and no substantial change in future business results is anticipated. However, the Company group's businesses represent one part of the broader entertainment sector, and they are affected by the market environment brought about by various entertainment trends. Estimates of future taxable income based on business plans are therefore subject to uncertainty. If estimates of future taxable income change, then this will have an impact on deferred tax assets and income taxes - deferred.

(Changes in presentation method)

“Loss on valuation of investment securities,” which had been presented independently under “Non-operating expenses” in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023, became immaterial in amount and is thus presented as a component of “Other” from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024. Additionally, “Loss on sale of investment securities,” which had been included in “Other” under “Non-operating expenses” in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023, became material in amount and is thus presented independently beginning with the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024. In order to reflect this change in the presentation method, reclassification was performed with respect to the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023.

As a result, “Loss on valuation of investment securities” in the amount of ¥362 million (USD 2 million) and “Other” in the amount of ¥30 million (USD 0 million) that had been presented under “Non-operating expenses” in the consolidated statements of income for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023 were reclassified into “Loss on sale of investment securities” and “Other” in the amounts of ¥0 million (USD 0 million) and ¥392 million (USD 2 million), respectively.

(Notes to consolidated statements of cash flows)

“Purchase of treasury shares,” which had been presented independently under “Cash flows from financing activities” in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023, became immaterial in amount and is thus presented as a component of “Other, net” from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024. In order to reflect this change in the presentation method, reclassification was performed with respect to the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023.

As a result, “Purchase of treasury shares” in the amount of ¥(50,733) million (USD (335) million) and “Other, net” in the amount of ¥(1,540) million (USD (10) million) that had been presented under “Cash flows from financing activities” in the consolidated statements of cash flows for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023 were reclassified into “Other, net” in the amount of ¥(52,273) million (USD (346) million).

1. Condition of financial instruments

(1) Policy for measures relating to financial instruments

Nintendo (the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries) invests its funds in highly safe financial assets such as deposits. Nintendo utilizes derivatives to reduce risk as described below and for the purpose of improving the investment yield on short-term financial assets, and does not enter into transactions for speculative purposes.

(2) Details of financial instruments, related risks, and risk management system

Notes and accounts receivable - trade are exposed to credit risk from customers. In order to reduce this risk, Nintendo monitors the financial position and transaction history, assesses creditworthiness and sets a transaction limit for each customer. The risk regarding bonds included in short-term investment securities and investment securities is negligible, since they are mainly the bonds of correspondent financial institutions, the U.S. Treasury and other entities with strong credit that are held to maturity. Such bonds are also subject to foreign currency exchange risk and market risk. Nintendo closely monitors the market price of such bonds and the financial position of the issuer and reviews the status of these holdings on a regular basis. Stocks included in investment securities are mainly those of companies with which the Company has business relationships. These stocks are exposed to market risk, but the balance held is immaterial.

Notes and accounts payable - trade and income taxes payable are all due within one year.

Derivative transactions include foreign exchange forward contracts, non-deliverable forward contracts and currency option contracts etc. to reduce risk of exchange rate fluctuations arising from deposits and receivables, etc. denominated in foreign currencies. These transactions are conducted by the Finance Department of the Company and the departments in charge of financial matters of its consolidated subsidiaries after securing approval from the President and Representative Director or the Executive Officer in charge within limits such as balance of foreign currency deposits during the period. The status of derivative transactions is reported to the Executive Officer in charge and the Board of Directors on a regular basis. Since counterparties of such transactions are limited to financial institutions that have high creditworthiness, Nintendo judges that risk due to default is minimal.

(3) Supplementary explanation regarding fair values of financial instruments

As variable factors are incorporated into the measurement of the fair values of financial instruments, the values may vary depending on the assumptions used. In addition, the contract amounts of the derivative transactions described in "Derivative transactions" do not represent the market risk of derivative transactions.

2. Fair value of financial instruments

The book value on the consolidated balance sheets, fair value, and differences between them are as follows. The presentation of cash and deposits, notes and accounts receivable - trade, notes and accounts payable - trade, and income taxes payable has been omitted due to being cash, or as the settlement periods are short and the market values thereof are essentially equal to the book values.

3. Breakdown of Financial Instruments by Level of Fair Value

The fair value of financial instruments is classified into the following three levels based on the observability and significance of the inputs used to calculate fair value.

Level 1 fair values: Fair values calculated using (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

Level 2 fair values: Fair values calculated using directly or indirectly observable inputs other than those in Level 1

Level 3 fair values: Fair values calculated using significant unobservable inputs

When multiple inputs that may have a material impact on the calculation of fair value are used, the calculated fair value is classified at the lowest level of the inputs used.

(Note) Explanation of the valuation techniques and inputs used to calculate fair value

Short-term and long-term investment securities

Listed shares, Japanese government bonds, bonds, etc. are mainly valued using market prices. Because listed shares and some Japanese government bonds are traded in active markets, their fair value is classified as Level 1. The fair value of other securities and investment securities is classified as Level 2, because they are not considered to have market prices in active markets. If market prices cannot be obtained, fair value is calculated using valuation techniques such as the discounted present value of future cash flows, with inputs including swap rates, credit spreads, and liquidity premiums.

Derivative transactions

The fair value of derivative transactions for which market prices are available for reference is classified as Level 1.

Segment information, etc.

Segment information

The main business of Nintendo is the development, manufacturing, sales, etc. of handheld and home game system hardware and related software. Development and manufacturing of products for worldwide use are primarily done by the Company while sales is done mainly by subsidiaries. Nintendo operates as a single operating segment with a single distribution channel and market for Nintendo's products and with each major subsidiary solely responsible for sales. Decision for allocation of the management resources and evaluation of business results are made on a company-wide basis, not on a product category or regional basis. Therefore, segment information is omitted.
